Tech Tip: flipgrid.com

Flipgrid released a new camera. All of its new features give students TONS of options for showing what they know and reflecting on learning:

Filters (including pixel mode)

- Text boxes
- Stickers (emojis, accessories, etc.)
- Drawing/inking
- Whiteboard mode
- Live recording (make changes on the fly while recording)

Bookish Podcasts

For those of you who don't have nearly enough time as you would like for reading books, these podcasts will keep you up on the latest books, news from the publishing world, and recent events with popular authors.

There's an APP for that:

2 GoConqr

- If you're a bit of a social learner, this is the app for you as it allows you to connect and collaborate with your friends, classmates or even students on the other side of the world!
- You can join in with countless Learning Groups on different study topics, share and post resources and get feedback and advice from other people studying the same subject.
- It's visual, collaborative and lets you study on the go!
- Promising review: 'This is the only study app you'll ever need. Mind maps, quizzes, flashcards, etc. Very easy to use. Love it!'
